You are Invited :

to a talk by world record holder

Ursula Grobler (USA LW2x & LW4x) : about New Zealand World Champs, Paleo Nutrition and the:

Launch of Ursula's shweshwe influenced/designed JL gear?!

)see below

8th December ((Wed)

7-9pm @ JL Store: 3425 Stone way n -Seattle

rsvp: seattle@jlracing.com

1800-474-1626

-space limited, rsvp today : Attend and you will also receive a FREE special gift from JL : :

www.jlracing.com

The origin of this vibrant patterning is rich in diversity. Originally from India, it was later brought to South Africa by German settlers in 1858. It was a Xhosa women who gave it the name "Shweshwe", imitating the swishing sound of the settlers' skirts as they walked. Now the shirts' transformed into patterns with an uniquely African feel that it retains to this day.